Foreword

In this Breaker is the story of one of our happy years spent at Central. As you slowly turn through this book, many cherished memories of basket-ball games, club activities, class parties, Junior-Senior plays, and other activities will be recalled. May we always remember these things, and especially our teachers who have so patiently stood beside us everyday of the year. We appreciate their efforts very much.

We, the staff, present this book to you in hopes that it will bring much joy to you in the years to come.

Dedication

In appreciation of her unceasing work for and with the students of our school we dedicate this, the 1956 BREAKER to

Class Song

Tune: "Fleming"
by Frederich W. Faber

Hail! Central High School
Hail to thee!
Home of our joys and tears,
Triumphs and our sorrows,
Where we have labored,
Gathering sweet wisdom;
Our Alma Mater.

Hail! Central High School
We shall n'er forget thee,
Ever our hearts shall
Hold thee in remembrance;
Memories of childhood days,
Memories so precious;
Our Alma Mater.

Hail! Central High School,
We shall ever love thee,
We shall forevermore
Sing thy praises high,
Now as we leave, we
Bid thee fair tomorrows;
Our Alma Mater.

Class History

Hearken unto me and listen while I tell you of something which began several years ago at dear old Central High. In the year of 1944, most of us present seniors --then only small boys and small girls, awed by such a thing as "going to school"-- took another step in the long, yet short, pilgrimage on the great road of life. As we thus began this journey of schooling, we contacted many strange people whom we grew to like very much. Sooner or later we realized the important parts played by reading and 'riting and 'rithmetic in this adventure. Finally, despite the many obstacles which we met along the way, we arrived at the concluding of our grade-school life. In that eighth year, highlighted by a trip to our state capital, Raleigh, and climaxed by our graduation, we were joined by some students from Newland.

Then we came to a slight curve in the road as we reached our "freshman" stage. Especially remembered of that year is our initiation into the F.F.A. and F.H.A. clubs.

By the time we were sophomores, we were more-or-less acquainted with the ways and whims of high-schoolers. Of that year, we recall our Sophomore-Senior weiner roast held at historic Nixonton.

At last we were Juniors! During that time we found ourselves busily engaged in the receiving of our class rings, the giving of the customary Junior play, and the giving and the attending of the usual Junior-Senior banquet.

With some sadness and some gladness, we realize that senior life at present is swiftly passing. Various activities press themselves urgently upon us as we are about to end our high-school life once and forever. But, despite the many things which are behind and before, we press eagerly toward the future with "warm courage and high hope."

In conclusion, we hereby express our appreciation for our homeroom teacher, who has stayed with us through the "ups and downs" which accompany four years of high-school life. We say "Thank you, Mr. Derrick." Also, to all of the others who have served us so faithfully during our travels, we say "Thank you, one and all."

Class Prophecy

TIME: 8 P.M., November 27, 1970
PLACE: "This Is Your Life"
New York City. The program has just begun.

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, welcome to 'This Is Your Life,' presented by Lubrico, the facial cream for robots. Remember Lubrico, for the tin you love to touch. And now, here is your master of ceremonies, BOBBY PIERCE.

"Thank you, EDWIN LAYDEN, and good evening all. It is indeed a privilege to be interviewing our distinguished guest tonight, MR. J. E. DERRICK, author of the best-seller 'Life Among the Savages--High School Style,' since both your announcer and I were members of his Senior Class of 1956. Mr. Derrick, we have invited here tonight as many of your old students as we could locate and fly to New York to help us with the presentation of your life story. First of all, let us introduce them to our audience.

"MELVIN S. CARTER and CALVIN L. CRADDOCK formed the famous brokerage firm of Carter and Craddock on Wall Street, not far from the headquarters of the J.C. Penny Company, which is now under the control of PHIL SAWYER and LARRY MARKHAM. Mr. Sawyer is escorting MARY E. REID, famous syndicated columnist of the Washington Post. FAYE WHITEHURST, private nurse to the president is escorted by Mr. Markham.

"ABIGAIL MADRE, third grade teacher in the primary school in Greenville, made the trip with two of her friends, CHARLETTA CARTWRIGHT and YVONNE FERRELL, owners of a chain of restaurants known as 'Yonnie's Chicken Shacks, Inc.' ANN FERRELL and IRVIN CULLENS are also along, fresh from Kannapolis where Miss Ferrell is head bookkeeper in the Cannon Mills and Mr. Cullens owns a large distributing business. BETTY ANN CARTWRIGHT, disc jockey at WCKY, is escorted by Mr. Cullens.

"PEGGY BRANCH MATHEWS has recently published a book entitled 'How to Wrap Your Husband Around Your Little Finger--in Ten Easy Lessons.' BILL BRITE and C. R. BRINKLEY have opened a drive-in in Wilson known as the B & B right next door to LOU ANNA CARTWRIGHT's doughnut bakery.

"CHARLES HALSEY and BOBBY LEE SPENCE came in together. Charles is head coach at William and Mary while Bobby was recently voted the nation's number one farmer. BILLY WADE TEMPLE, salesman for the Strietmann Biscuit Company can sell more cookies than you can shake a lady finger at. BILLY CECIL WHITE has taken a job with Esquire as head of the art department. Needless to say, he enjoys his job.

"BESSIE DEAN WHITE, wife of the US ambassador to Turkey is often seen at the beauty shop owned by SHIRLEY HOFFMAN and MARY ELIZABETH JORDAN. Mary Liza's is known far and wide for the excellent attention given to milady's coiffure.

"ALBERT MILLER, insurance salesman, is known as 'Annuity Al' in company circles. LESSIE MAE JENNINGS is a minister's wife and is currently engaged in raising a large family as are BILLIE FRANCES SAWYER and JANICE BROTHERS, Coast Guard wives. They have been busily engaged in moving around the country and enriching the population numerically these past fourteen years.

"BEVERLY BALLANCE is private secretary to an executive of the Texas Oil Company and ANNETTE WILLIAMS is a guidance counselor at the Lakewood School in Sioux City. BETTY LOU WILSON, featured in the Warner Bros. Production 'Tamed' is considered Hollywood's most promising new actress.

"BOBBY CAMPBELL, state commander of the National Guard was recently commended by the governor of North Carolina for the excellence of his units.

"Unfortunately JOE FERRELL could not be with us tonight. He is a member of the first rocket cruise to the moon and will not be back to earth for some fifteen years. However, I understand they have television connections up there, so I'm sure he will be tuned in. It must get very lonesome there, so perhaps this program will cheer him up. . . . ."

Oh no! The set blanked out. Did he say lonesome? It's not the least bit lonesome, is it Luna? Luna, my wife, is one of the moon people. We have a cozy little bungalow on the dark side of the moon just below the equator. The subterranean climate is simply out of this world. By the way, the next rocket leaves sometime in November 1985. Won't you join me?

Let Me Tell You
A Question

I Have Only A Nickel

Get "Quite"!

Please

Look What We've Got New

All Wrong

NOW I'D LIKE TO SING FOR YOU "YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS".

THEN HE SAYS TO HER, "HI LOVER!"

I TELL YOU FRIENDS THE BEST WAY TO COOK IS WITH A STOVE.

WHERE ARE WE GOING EDDIE?

IT'S UP TO YOU MATTIE.

HOW ABOUT A LIFT?
PLAY THAT BOOGIE AGAIN
HAS ANYBODY SEEN MY GAL?
I'LL LEARN TO DRIVE THIS THING OR ELSE
